Sinn Spezialuhren and sales partner Juwelier am Schloss in Schwetzingen present: The to 100 pieces limited special edition 104 St Sa I ES. The clearly structured appearance and the associated good readability of time, date and day of the week characterize the model series as 104 classic pilot watches, in keeping with the proven SINN tradition. For these reasons, they are also among the most popular timepieces from our company. As a special color feature, we have designed an unusual dial for the 104 St Sa I ES with a nuanced color gradient from ivory to black. In addition, the brown rotating bezel inlay helps to emphasize the harmonious overall impression of the watch. The winding rotor is engraved with the respective limitation number on this special edition. Crystal made of sapphire crystal glass, which is also used for the transparent case back. The pilot's bezel with minute ratcheting can be rotated on both sides. It is securely attached to the case made of polished stainless steel and has a luminous triangle as key mark. The watch is pressure-resistant to 20 bar and low pressure resistant.
