This special edition, limited to 200 pieces, skillfully combines elegance and sportiness with its minimalist dial design and striking shape.

This is underlined by the blue glossy dial, while the orange-red second hand provides a lively color accent. The dark blue, finely edged hands and indices with luminescent colour ensure optimum legibility - even in the dark. A date window at 6 o'clock adds functionality without disturbing the harmonious overall appearance.

The satinised stainless steel case combines timeless elegance with a robust character, which is underlined by the water resistance and pressure resistance of 20 bar.

Both the crystal and the case back are made of scratch-resistant sapphire crystal with an anti-reflective coating. This ensures perfect readability of the time and date, as well as an unobstructed view of the finely finished movement at all times. The winding rotor is engraved with the limited edition number and the „Kluger Kopf“ of the famous F.A.Z.-campaign, making the timepiece a unique collector's item.

The edition limited to 200 pieces of the 556 I F.A.Z. for the Frankfurter Allgemeine Zeitung is the result of a long-standing partnership between two renowned traditional Frankfurt companies.
